

Scott Krugman, MD, MS, FAAP
Vice Chair, Department of Pediatrics
Herman & Walter Samuelson Children's Hospital at Sinai

Scott Krugman, MD, MS, FAAP, is Vice-Chair, Department of Pediatrics at the Herman & Walter Samuelson Children's Hospital at Sinai. Dr. Krugman graduated from Dartmouth Medical School and completed his residency at Johns Hopkins Children's Center. Prior to joining Sinai, he was Chairman, Department of Pediatrics and Director of Medical Education at MedStar Franklin Square Medical Center from 2002-2018. He served as Associate Dean for Medical Education at MFSMC, Georgetown University School of Medicine and Professor of Pediatrics at Georgetown University Medical Center from 2014-2018. He currently is appointed as Clinical Professor of Pediatrics at the George Washington University School of Medicine as Sinai Hospital of Baltimore is a regional medical campus for the medical school. A board-certified Child Abuse Pediatrician, Dr. Krugman chairs the Baltimore County Child Fatality Review Team and is a member of the Baltimore County Child Protection Review Panel. He has served on numerous statewide child abuse committees and is a faculty member of the Maryland Child Abuse Medical Professionals (CHAMP). Dr. Krugman is a Past-President of the Maryland Chapter of the American Academy of Pediatrics and served on the national American Academy of Pediatrics Council on Community Pediatrics from 2014-2019. He served as Journal Associate Editor for Hospital Pediatrics from 2011 – 2017 and currently is a member of the Journal Editorial Board for Pediatrics. Dr. Krugman has received numerous awards including the Health Care Delivery Award from the Academic Pediatric Association, the Maryland Chapter American Academy of Pediatrics Pediatrician of the Year Award and Michael Burke Mentorship Award, and residency program teaching awards.