

Anne M. Stack, MD

Senior Associate Physician in Medicine; Director of Quality, Division of Emergency Medicine
Boston Children's Hospital
Associate Professor of Pediatrics and Emergency Medicine,
Vice Chair and Donald M. Berwick Chair in Pediatric Quality and Outcomes
Department of Pediatrics
Harvard Medical School

Anne M. Stack, MD, is a Senior Associate Physician in Medicine (Emergency Medicine) at Boston Children's Hospital and Associate Professor of Pediatrics and Emergency Medicine at Harvard Medical School. She is the Vice Chair and the Donald M. Berwick Chair in Pediatric Quality and Outcomes for the Department of Pediatrics. A graduate of Harvard Medical School, Dr. Stack has spent her career at Boston Children's Hospital. At Boston Children's Hospital, she served as the Clinical Chief of the Division of Emergency Medicine for 15 years, and was a member of both the Board of Trustees and Physician's Organization Board. She is a member of the Sandra L. Fenwick Institute for Pediatric Health Equity and Inclusion Steering Committee. Nationally, she is active in the Society for Pediatric Research, the Academic Pediatric Association and the American Academy of Pediatrics Section on Emergency Medicine. Her academic efforts have focused on improving the quality and safety of pediatric care.