

Patricia M. Hopkins, MD

Professor of Pediatrics
Albany Medical College

Patricia M. Hopkins, MD, is board certified in Pediatrics and Pediatric Hospital Medicine and a Professor of Pediatrics at the Bernard and Millie Duker Children's Hospital at Albany Medical Center. Dr. Hopkins divides her clinical time between care of pediatric inpatients at Albany Medical Center and care of medically complex children residing at St. Margaret's Center in Albany.

Dr. Hopkins is an accomplished teacher and mentor. Her mentees have gone on to serve as leaders locally and nationally. She serves as a mentor to students, residents and faculty and has worked with her department leadership to form a departmental mentoring committee this past year.

Dr. Hopkins is active in her institutional leadership serving as the Vice Chair for Clinical Affairs and the Medical Director of Inpatient Pediatrics. Over the past several years she has led the effort for culture change within the children's hospital, training interdisciplinary teams in teamwork and communication skills.