

Chris Peltier, MD, FAAP

Associate Professor of Pediatrics

University of Cincinnati College of Medicine

Director, Community Section, Division of General and Community Pediatrics

Cincinnati Children's Hospital Medical Center

Dr. Chris Peltier, MD, FAAP, received his BS in Biology at the University of Cincinnati and his MD at the University of Cincinnati College of Medicine. He completed his pediatric residency and Chief Residency at Riley Hospital for Children in Indianapolis. Since 1999 Dr. Peltier has been a general pediatrician in independent practice at Pediatric Associates of Mount Carmel, Inc., located in Cincinnati, Ohio, and a partner in the practice since 2001. In addition to providing routine well and ill care to his patients, his clinical interests include infant nutrition and mental health. Dr. Peltier is an Associate Professor of Pediatrics at the University of Cincinnati College of Medicine and serves as the Director of the Community Section in the Division of General and Community Pediatrics at Cincinnati Children's Hospital Medical Center. His main academic interests are community-based medical education, faculty development of clinical preceptors, and professional identity formation and sense of belonging in trainees. He has precepted medical students and residents in his office for 25 years. He has presented numerous faculty development workshops locally, regionally, and nationally. Locally he serves as the Vice President of Medical Affairs and the Chair of the Board of Directors for Tri-State Child Health Services, a physician-led network made up of primary care physicians, specialists, and Cincinnati Children's Hospital Medical Center committed to improving the health of the children in Southwest Ohio, Eastern Indiana, and Northern Kentucky, and he is on the Board of Directors of the Cincinnati Pediatric Society. At the state level Dr. Peltier is the Immediate Past President of the Ohio Chapter, American Academy Pediatrics where he has led numerous education, advocacy, and quality improvement projects. During his tenure as President, the Ohio Chapter won the AAP Outstanding Very Large Chapter Award. Nationally, Dr. Peltier recently served as the Education Chair for the AAP Council on Community Pediatrics and is a member of the AAP Practical Pediatrics Course Planning Committee. Dr. Peltier also serves on the Pampers North American Advisory Board and is the Chief Medical Consultant, Baby Care/Pampers North America for Procter and Gamble. He also is a member of the By Heart Medical Advisory Board. Dr. Peltier has received both the University of Cincinnati College of Medicine Outstanding Alumni Award, and the UC College of Medicine Distinguished Alumni Award. Dr. Peltier has received numerous teaching awards and is a member of Alpha Omega Alpha Honor Medical Society and has been elected to the American Pediatric Society.